CampingCar-Online/Ramble Campervans can help you choose a motorhome to explore the best of Quebec departing from Montreal.

Located on one of the St. Lawrence Islands, Montreal is the largest French-speaking city after Paris. It is a city of good food and fashion which cultivates the art of enjoying life and good living.

You can explore Montreal's many districts, each with a defined character, such as Little Italy, Chinatown, the Greek Quarter. The city centre is easily explored on foot and you can reach the old harbor and its islands and enjoy eating at one of the many bistros. It's not easy to park a motorhome in the city centre, so CampingCar-Online/Ramble Campervans recommends that you explore this area before collecting your motorhome and start your road trip.

Montreal is an ideal starting point to explore the different regions of Quebec, such as the Gaspé and its spectacular scenery or the Saguenay National Park and Saint Jean Lake. You can head to the national parks in your motorhome or go and see the many marine animals that go back into the St. Lawrence River via the Saguenay estuary.
