Cape Town is the oldest city in South Africa, but is nevertheless lively and cosmopolitan. It has a truly magnificent setting, nestled between ocean and mountains. The city centre is worth a visit as it is rich in historical monuments, museums and different architectural styles. Robben Island, where Nelson Mandela was imprisoned for 27 years, is an impressive visit that can be taken from Cape Town involving a short ferry crossing to the island.

In your motorhome you can explore the city's surrounding areas. Enjoy the scenic Cape of Good Hope nature reserve. Admire the spectacular view from Cape Point after an easy, one hour walk. Here the Indian and Atlantic Oceans meet. Hike up the iconic Table Mountain or take the cable cars to the top. Enjoy the penguins at Boulders Beach, the vast Muizenberg beach and Simon's Town.
