San Sebastian lies between Mount Urgull and Mount Igueldo and is surrounded by the shell-shaped bay of "la Concha". It truly became a tourist seaside town in the 19th century and has grown steadily since. Enjoy beautiful walks lined with luxurious buildings along the two sandy city beaches: la Concha and Ondarreta. The old town has lively, narrow streets that are especially enjoyable in the evenings. Enjoy delicious tapas and seafood in the many restaurants and tapas bars. For an excellent view of the city and the sea, climb to the summit of Mount Igueldo. Mount Urgull is also a good view point of the bay and the monuments of the old city. Only a few kilometres from San Sebastian you can visit Bilbao and its spectacular Guggenheim Museum, the Basque coast, Goierri Valley and Tolosaldea in the heart of the Aralar Natural Park!
