

Historical towns and villages in Switzerland

Historical towns and villages in Switzerland

Dotted across the majestic Swiss landscape are ancient towns and villages of historical and cultural significance. Each with their own story to tell, look a little closer and you will discover the many layers of Switzerland on your motorhome holiday. Ideal for day trips and diversions from your itinerary, let your motorhome take you on a historical and cultural journey through Switzerland's castles, monasteries, churches and flowering gardens.

“Davos” is perhaps the most well known small town in Switzerland; with a motorhome rental you will discover many historical and cultural gems in towns and cities across this spectacular country dotted with lakes and surging mountains. Cruising into Davos you will find a pristine city at 1,560m the highest city in Europe is nestled in the mountains. In spring and summer, take the Schatz-Funicular to visit the botanical garden. Nature is always close in Switzerland; enjoy a hike in Park Ela amongst flower meadows and crystal clear lakes. In winter, take advantage of the impressive ski area, who knows who you might bump into.

Visit Bern in your motorhome, a UNESCO world heritage site since 1983. Founded in 1181 the old town of Bern with its charming alleys and historic sandstone buildings are a must see, pop in to Einstein's famous house and see what made him tick. Bern is certainly an interesting cultural addition to your motorhome itinerary. Part of the Roman Empire for 6 centuries Switzerland has a deeper history. On the site of Bern a roman vicus (town) was present on the River Aar up to the 3rd century AD. Explore historical Switzerland by motorhome you are sure to be delighted by the story you discover.