Los Angeles, also known as the "City of Angels", has a population of about 3.9 million inhabitants. There are countless memories to be made visiting Hollywood, Universal Studios, and Disneyland. You can also enjoy the famous beaches, such as Venice Beach, Malibu Beach, and Santa Monica Beach, with its white sandy shores and surf shops. Los Angeles is huge and it's not possible to explore its many neighbourhoods on foot. You will find it much easier to explore in your motorhome and the roads are suitable for this type of vehicle. You'll have no trouble finding campsites. Visit the Museum of Contemporary Art, Rodeo Drive, Beverly Hills and Melrose Place.

Los Angeles is an ideal starting point to take the legendary Route 66 or the Pacific Coast Highway that will take you to San Francisco. You can also go from Los Angeles to many national parks. Don't miss one of the most spectacular parks in the USA, Grand Canyon National Park. There is also Death Valley, America's largest park, with its diverse landscapes. Yosemite National Park, with its granite rocks and redwood forests, is also worth a visit. In your motorhome you can also explore Joshua Tree, Sequoia, and Kings Canyon National Parks.
